

AMY FIELDS

Vice President & Chief Human Resources Officer
HBM Holdings

Amy Fields is the Vice President & Chief Human Resources Officer for HBM Holdings and is responsible for the overall HR and talent management strategy for the organization. Before joining HBM, Amy was the Chief Human Resources Officer at Amerinet, a healthcare supply chain and consulting firm, and worked in progressively responsible global HR leadership roles at Solutia, a specialty chemical manufacturer. She started her career in Boston with HR roles at Shire Pharmaceuticals and Thomson & Thomson. Amy is a generalist with expertise in mergers and acquisitions, talent development, and establishing HR as a strategic function within organizations. Amy holds a Master of Social Work and a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology, both from Washington University in St. Louis.
