

Allen Latta

Managing Director

Campton Private Equity Advisors

Allen has over 25 years of experience in private equity, venture capital and corporate finance. Campton provides advisory services to institutions, family offices and high net worth individuals on asset allocation, private equity and venture capital fund investments, direct investments and secondary opportunities.

Prior to forming Campton, Allen was a member of the board of directors, head of the US office and Director, Business Development at VenCap International, a global private equity fund-of-funds manager based in Oxford, UK. Previously, Allen was an investment banker at Bear, Stearns & Co. and at CIBC Oppenheimer and started his career as a corporate finance attorney specializing in venture capital transactions.

Allen received his MBA in Finance from UCLA Anderson, his JD from UC Hastings College of Law, and his BA in Economics from UCLA. Allen has authored numerous articles on private equity and has a blog on Private Equity at www.allenlatta.com. Allen is a CFA Charterholder and a CAIA Charterholder.

---