

David Almodovar

Vice President, Principal

Private Markets Investments

Mr. Almodovar is a member of the Private Markets Investment Department and is responsible for deal sourcing, due diligence, portfolio management, and relationship management. He is located in the Portland office. Prior to joining GCM Grosvenor, Mr. Almodovar was a Principal in the Customized Fund Investment Group of Credit Suisse Group AG. He joined Credit Suisse in 2004.

Previously, Mr. Almodovar was a Director in the private equity division at Russell Investment Group and was responsible for raising, investing and monitoring Russell's private equity partnership investments, as well as relationship management. Prior to joining Russell in 1999, Mr. Almodovar was a Principal with SS Thomas & Associates and was responsible for advising the firm's clients on investment strategies, fund structures and fund raising strategies. Prior to SS Thomas & Associates, Mr. Almodovar was an Investment Officer in the alternative investment division of the Washington State Investment Board from 1994 to 1998, where he managed a $5.2 billion portfolio of private equity investments.

Prior to his work in the investment industry, Mr. Almodovar served in many capacities in the U.S. Army from 1985 to 1991, including assignments in the U.S., South Korea and Saudi Arabia during Operation Desert Storm. Mr. Almodovar received his Bachelor of Arts from the University of Washington in 1995 and his Master of Business Administration from St. Martin's University's School of Business in 1998.
