

Zachary Jackson, CFA

Vice President

QIC

Zachary joined QIC in 2011 with a focus on North American buyouts, Latin American emerging markets, and secondaries and co-investments.

His work includes Context Capital Management, LLC, in San Diego – credit and equity analysis on portfolio companies and co-managed levered investment grade convertible volatility and capital structure arbitrage portfolio.

Zachary has a Masters in Business Administration from the Rady School at University of California, San Diego, and a BS in Financial Services from San Diego State University.

---